Other Relevant Information

Scott Evans is responsible for supervising the engagement.

You agree to hold us harmless and to release, indemnify, and defend us from any liability or costs, including attorney's fees, resulting from management's knowing misrepresentations to us.

We will prepare the federal & the required state income tax return(s) with supporting schedules as required.

You are responsible for the safeguarding of assets, proper recording of transactions in the books of accounts, the substantial accuracy of the financial records, and the full and accurate disclosure of all relevant facts affecting the return(s) to us. You also have final responsibility for the tax return and, therefore, the appropriate company officials should review the return carefully before an authorized officer signs and files it.

If, during our work, we discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that do not meet these standards. Accordingly, we will advise you if we identify such a situation, and we will discuss those tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures before completing the preparation of the return. If we conclude that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement. Likewise, where we disagree about the obligation to disclose a position, you also have a right to choose another professional to prepare your return. In either event, you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of the withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

In connection with this engagement, we may communicate with you or others via electronic transmissions or communications including but not limited to, email, text messages, etc. As electronic transmissions can be intercepted and read, disclosed, or otherwise used or communicated by an unintended third party, or may not be delivered to each of the parties to whom they are directed and only such parties, we cannot guarantee or warrant that electronic communications from us will be properly delivered and read only by the addressee. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for interception or unintentional disclosure of electronic communications transmitted by us in connection with the performance of this engagement. In that regard, you agree that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of electronic communications transmissions, including any consequential, incidental, direct, indirect, or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information.

Certain communications involving tax advice may be privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you, your employees, or agents may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice. Should you decide it is appropriate for us to disclose any potentially privileged communication, you agree to provide us with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you. In the event you direct us not to make the disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expenses incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside adviser's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert the privilege.

The return(s) may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in our fees for preparation of the tax return(s).

You are responsible for making all management decisions and performing all management functions, and for designating an individual who possesses suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the tax services we provide. In addition, you are responsible for evaluating the adequacy and results of the services performed, including estimated directors' fees, if any, and accepting responsibility for such decisions. Understated director's fees may generate additional tax, penalty, and interest. Lastly, you also approve of various tax elections which can and are made in your behalf which tax elections can be discussed at your request.

Please note that any person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the United States (includes individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, and estates) having a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, bank accounts, securities, or other financial accounts having an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 in a foreign country, shall report such relationship. Filing requirements also apply to taxpayers that have direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign account(s). For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporations and by the individual officers with signature authority. Failure to disclose the required information to the US Department of Treasury may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties. If you and/or your entity have a financial interest in any foreign accounts, you are responsible for providing our firm with all the information necessary to prepare Form TD-F-90-22.1 required by the US Department of Treasury. If you don't provide our firm with information regarding any interest you may have in a foreign account, we will not be able to prepare any of the required disclosure statements. By your signature below, you accept responsibility for informing us if you are an officer, director, or shareholder in a foreign corporation and you agree to provide to us the information necessary to prepare the appropriate forms. In the event, that you do not provide us with this information, we assume no liability for penalties associated with missing, late, or incomplete information pursuant to code section 6038(a).

IRC section 199A may be applicable to your tax filings. We will provide guidance as best as we can based on our interpretation of this code section. Many unanswered questions have arisen in the tax profession and the IRS in many cases has yet to provide authoritative guidance. Further, the planning possibilities embedded in this code section may provide unintended results in other facets of tax planning such as pension, FICA tax, reasonable and unreasonable compensation, entity selection, etc. By executing this engagement letter, you are asserting that you are aware of the difficulties in tax planning created by this code section and waive any liability against our firm.

Because of the inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding the statute of limitations of the State of Utah, any claims based on this engagement must be filed within 12 months after performance of our services, unless you have previously provided us with a written notice of a specific claim for defect in our services.

If the tax returns are used for verification of income with any lender or mortgage broker, you agree to hold us harmless and agree to pay any and all costs, including attorney's fees, outside advisors, fines, penalties, court costs. etc.

If you are involved with a Section 105 plan, there is extra time in the preparation of your return, for which the third-party administrator pays Evans & Associates, Inc., a fee. This disclosure is required by the AICPA.

If you are involved with myPay Solutions, a payroll processing company, you acknowledge the fact that we have access to your payroll records including your quarterly payroll reports and W-2s for you and your employees. You also acknowledge that myPay Solutions pays Evans & Associates, Inc. a fee. This disclosure is required by the AICPA.

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for three (3) years. However, we do not keep any of your original records and will return those to you upon completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect the records for possible future use, including examination by governmental or regulatory agencies. By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the three (3) year period, we are free to destroy our records to this engagement.

You may request that we perform additional services not contemplated by this engagement letter. If this occurs, we will communicate with you regarding the scope of the additional services and the estimated fee. We also may issue a separate engagement letter covering the additional services. In the absence of any other written communication from us documenting such additional services, our services will continue to be governed by the terms of this engagement letter.

You will be billed our standard billing rate for these services. The fees are estimated on anticipated cooperation from your personnel and the assumption that unexpected circumstances will not be encountered during the work performed. If significant additional time is necessary, we will discuss it with you and arrive at a new fee estimate before we incur the additional costs. In addition, we will bill a finance charge for all overdue balances. Our invoices for these fees will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation.

You will also be billed for out-of-pocket costs such as word processing, postage, travel, etc. The fee estimate is based on anticipated cooperation from your personnel and the assumption that unexpected circumstances will not be encountered during the work performed. If significant additional time is necessary, we will discuss it with you and arrive at a new fee estimate before we incur the additional costs. Our invoices for these fees will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation.

Should you require interim financial statements for third-party use, we would be pleased to discuss with you the requested level of service. Such an engagement would be considered separate and not deemed to be part of the services described in this engagement letter.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you and believe this letter accurately summarizes the significant terms of our engagement. If you have any questions, please let us know. If you agree with the terms of our engagement as described in this letter, please sign the enclosed copy and return it to us.

Sincerely,
